

JOBKEEPER PAYMENTS:

EXAMPLES OF PAYMENTS TO EMPLOYEES ONLY IN INSTANCES WHERE

- Employer is eligible for JobKeeper payment *
- and the employee is an eligible employee
- *Note not all employers will be eligible from 30 March, may be some from later date
- Employer would get $1500 per fortnight to assist with paying the below amounts

A .EMPLOYEE EARNS $1500 or more per FORTNIGHT Normally (before tax).

1. Employee continuing to work full time
 - a. Paid as per normal
 - b. Super paid on above
2. Employee partly stood down , but would still earn over $1500 per fnt on reduced hours
 - a. Paid for work performed
 - b. Super paid on above
3. Employee partly stood down , and would earn on those hours less than $1500 per fnt
 - a. Paid $1500 per fortnight
 - b. Super paid only on actual worked hours
4. Employee fully stood down
 - a. Paid $1500 per fortnight
 - b. No super paid on $1500

B : EMPLOYEE EARNS (Normally) less than $1500 per fortnight(before tax)

1. Continuing to work full time
 - a. paid $1500 per fnt
 - b. Super only on hours worked
2. Partly stood down
 - a. Paid $1500
 - b. Super only on actual hours worked
 - c.
3. Fully Stood down
 - a. $1500
 - b. No super paid on $1500